Ali and Mike

August 27 2018

When Mike and I decided to get married, I knew even before planning the wedding who I wanted to photograph our day! We wanted a stress free, non-traditional wedding day, and Erin was the perfect choice to capture it. She rolled with my casual unplanned style and even helped the day progress in a timelier fashion (you get a photographer and a planner with this one!). I love the passion she puts into her work, and the giddy excitement you'll experience when she's getting a great shot. She was able to capture the essence of our day perfectly, I am constantly going through our photos and they never fail to bring a smile to my face and a happy tear to my eye. She produces timeless images that will never go out of style. I wouldn't change a thing about our wedding day, especially not our choice in photographer. Thank you so much for the memories Erin,
