Erin,

Not only were you organized, passionate, and enthusiastic, but you were also fun to be around and you managed to capture our wedding in a way that truly reflects us. Aside from your amazing personality, what we loved most about working with you was the fact that your work is far from boring. It's creative, interesting, and full of light. Your passion is so evident and we feel lucky to have had a photographer with so much love for her work.

It would be hard to say thank you without acknowledging how you went above and beyond our expectations. On the day of our wedding, the weather was cold and windy but you kept us all engaged and you never once wavered in your willingness to do whatever it took to get the perfect shot. You seemed to have taken any wedding chaos in perfect stride and you did a great job making people feel comfortable and at ease.

Thank you so much for everything. From the first email to the day we got our delivery in the mail, we have been so impressed with your professionalism and are incredibly grateful.

Thank you, thank you.

Ursula and Ian
